REVIVAL AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

To Begin the First Week in January, 1906, at the Christian Church in Farmington.

A series of revival meetings will be begun at the Christian Church in Farmington the first week in January, by Evangelist E. B. Barnes of Nobleville, Indiana, further notice of which will be given hereafter.

EVANGELIST E. B. BARNES.

W. J. Wright, Superintendent of Evangelists, Cincinnati, Ohio, says of him:

"Brother E. B. Barnes of Nobleville, Ind., concerning whom you write, I have frequently heard spoken of as the strongest preacher in a class of preachers who went out from Kentucky University some fifteen years ago. I think you cannot possibly make a mistake in calling him to the work which you have in mind."

Those who hear the selections as sung by Mr. and Mrs. Zeran are so delighted that they never fail to go again and again to listen to their splendid voices. This is not overdrawn, for it is a fact that it is seldom that singers are heard in this city whose voices are more exquisitely blended than are these two. They sing each night some of the most tuneful and touching melodies that we ever heard.—From report of revival meeting in the Christian Church at Alexandria, La., in the Daily Talk.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeran will sing in the revival meeting at the Christian church in Farmington, which begins the first week in January next.

The Presbyterian Bazaar will open promptly at one o'clock, Friday afternoon, December 8th.

Special Sermons at First M. E. Church.
The pastor of the First M. E. Church of Farmington has written a number of our leading business and professional men, asking them to kindly answer the following questions, to which they have most heartily responded:

1st. Why are not more men members of the Church?
2d. Are the Churches doing the work you believe the Church of Christ was founded to accomplish?
3d. What do you consider the most helpful features of Church life to-day?

The suggestions on these points will form the basis of a series of three Sunday evening sermons. The first will be on the first question, and will be delivered next Sunday evening, December 3d, at 7:30 o'clock.

The answers to these questions show that these gentlemen have their eyes on the work of the Churches and the moral as well as the business conditions of our city. The names of the men contributing will be withheld, but they have kindly permitted us to look at this matter through their eyes. The public is most cordially invited to these services.

W. R. McCormack, Pastor.

Commercial College O. J. M. A., O.
The foot ball team of Moothart's Commercial College of this city played a very interesting game with the Jackson Military Academy team at Jackson last Saturday morning, neither side scoring after forty-five minutes of play.

In the first half Jackson kicked the ball to Commercial's twenty-yard line only to lose it on downs, and then to the end of the half honors broke about even. The half ended with Jackson in possession of the ball.

The features of the game were the tackling and end runs of Asbury, the line plunging of McClintock, the good work of Neiderst at quarter, and the work of Masters and Swink for Jackson.

A crowd of about 200 witnessed the game. The line-up:
MOOTHART: Cloud, c; Bentley, rg; Krieger, rt; Cassidy, lg; Byington, lt; Daniels, lt; Eversole, le; Neiderst, qb; Asbury, lb; McClintock, fb; Simmons, rrb; Masters, Referee—Miller, Carleton; Umpire, Wilson; Jackson, time of halves twenty-five and twenty minutes.

Thanksgiving services at Christian Church Thursday by Rev. L. H. Davis.

If anyone wants to know about them Black River three and four point bucks just ask A. M. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann and Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins of Farmington were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Kinkaid Friday and Saturday.

Misses Mae Brown and Bernice Williams of Jackson, who have been visiting Miss Ste. Mary Kinkaid for two weeks, departed for home Sunday.

The foot ball fever has struck our public school, and the pupils have gone wild, and some one is going to get seriously hurt. We think a law should be passed prohibiting pupils of public schools from playing such a game.

A party of young people went out riding one evening last week, and thought they would explore grassy hills, so they started for the White Rock, but only six of the party got there. We happened to be on the road late that evening and met them returning, two and three in a bunch. Those that were successful in finding the white rock looked pleasant and happy, but those who never got there looked forlorn.

Supper will be served at the Presbyterian Bazaar on December 8 from 5 to 7 o'clock. Everybody will be made welcome.

A new night passenger train has been placed on the Belmont branch of the Iron Mountain, leaving Bismarck going south at 11:30 p. m., and going north arrives at Bismarck at 8 a. m. This train arrives at Libertyville at 11:55 p. m., and the electric car leaves Farmington at 11:30 p. m. to connect with the train south, and leaves Farmington at 7 a. m. to connect with the train north. 25 cents for the night trip on the electric car.

The fourth month's work at the Farmington Commercial College begins next Monday, Dec. 4th, at which time new classes will be organized in the various subjects.

The City Meat Market, (Thos. Autsen, proprietor,) is open again for business, and the patronage of all his former customers and the public generally is cordially solicited.

C. W. B. M. Day, Christian Church, Sunday, Dec. 3rd—A sermon will be preached by the pastor in the morning at 10:45. Special service in the evening at 7:30. Bible School at 9:30 a. m., C. E. 6:30 p. m.

Kahn will make you a 16x20 picture and frame it for $2.95.

SALEM NEIGHBORHOOD.
Little Olga Cunningham is on the sick list.

Alonso Perryman of near town spent Sunday with homefolks.

Little Miss Iva Richards is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Edwards.

Born, Nov. 27, 1905, to the wife of Joseph Shrum, an eleven pound daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cunningham and family spent a few days recently near Thurman.

Mrs. Will Poston and little daughter spent last Wednesday near Esther with her sister, Mrs. Ed. Howe.

Tom Perryman and sister, Miss Etta, attended prayer meeting at the home of Mr. A. B. Edwards in Oak-had vicinity Sunday night.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Edwards Sunday night. A large audience was present and a great interest was manifested. Services were conducted by C. I. Hoy.

OPAL.
Ledgers, journals, cash books, record books, day books, order books and counter books at Pety's Book Store.

Bulk, sweet and dill pickles at Klein's.

Tetley's is the place to buy watches, rings, pins, chains and all kinds of jewelry.

Thanksgiving Services.
In compliance with the proclamation of the President, and of the Governor of the State of Missouri, a union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday, November 30th, at 10:30 a. m. Elder Edward Owens, pastor of the Christian Church, will preach the sermon.

The Ministers' Alliance would suggest to the merchants, that if possible they so arrange their business as to close their stores at 10 o'clock on that day, that they and their assistants can attend this service.

Commerical College Notes.

Our school has much to be thankful for. The 60th student was enrolled and the work in the different departments is progressing nicely, while the prospect for a continued increase in enrollment is excellent.

On next Monday, December 4th, new classes will be organized in the various departments, this being the beginning of the fourth month's work.

Thanksgiving vacation included Thursday and Friday of this week. Virtually all of the non-resident students partook of the "National bird" with home folks.

Messrs. Koenig and Schumann are the new officials in the banking and advocate department.

The College Improvement Society gave its special program, "Read and Grow," at the 27th annual conference of the Missouri State Teachers' Association, held at the Hotel Missouri, St. Louis, Mo., December 1st to 5th, 1905. Considerable interest is being manifested in the department of the association.

The new and old work is Mr. Genevieve Burnett, who takes special instruction in the night school.
